

5077

A Stylish Pair of Milo Baughman for Thayer Coggin Open-Back Cut-Out Chairs

1960s

each cube-form chair with 'floating' backrest above a tubular chromed steel base; newly upholstered in a butter-yellow velvet with foam wrapped down cushion and seat; minor wear to chrome; Milo Baughman (American, 1923–2003) was a furniture designer who was born in Goodland, KS. After studying at the Art Center School of Los Angeles and the Chouinard Art Institute, he joined Frank Brothers as a custom furniture designer. In 1947, Baughman established Milo Baughman Design, Inc. In 1948, he created the California Modern collection creating a distinct style for Los Angeles furniture. In 1953, he began to work for Thayer Coggin, staying with them for the remainder of his life.

Height: 27"

Seat height: 18"

Width: 28"

Depth: 26"

Diameter:

Drop: