Pair of Paul Hanson Mid-century Columnar-form Gold Cased-glass Lamps

Mid-century

The Paul Hanson Lighting Company began in New York during the 1920's. They were known for their use of quality materials sourcing the best porcelains, wood, marble and bronze. The most collectible of Paul Hanson lamps are from the Hollywood Regency and Chinoiserie styles from the 1940's through 1960's. Paul Hanson's hallmarks include detailed pierced ceramic and metal, Mid-century modern geometric lines, and the use of classical motifs in glass or brass; excellent vintage condition; professionally rewired.
