

4646

a striking and large pair of american 1960's turquoise crackle-glaze ceramic lamps by frederick cooper

1960's

each boldly-shaped ovoid-form lamp of richly-colored turquoise crackle glaze; fitted with wooden caps and bases with brass fittings; excellent condition; one lamp of slightly darker hue; made by Frederick Cooper Lamp Company, Chicago (established 1923)

Height: 19" (top of ceramic) 38" (top of shade)

Seat height:

Width:

Depth:

Diameter: 13"

Drop: