

4616

oil on canvas mounted on masonite board; a finely rendered continental art deco painting of a seated woman

1930's

a well-thought out composition as the table plain draws the viewer into the room of a seated woman with distant gaze dressed in a blue jacket; the table set with a bowl of fruit, a goblet and plant; all within a silver-leafed carved wooden frame with linen slip; excellent condition professionally cleaned and restored; unsigned; later frame

Height: 34"

Seat height:

Width: 28"

Depth:

Diameter:

Drop: