

4821

A Rare Pair of Jørgen Høj (Danish, 1925–1994) Aluminum Stools/Benches with Black Leather Cushions

early 1960's

each square stool composed of rectilinear tubes fitted with leather strapwork supporting loose cushions; good vintage condition with new leather upholstery; Jørgen Høj was originally trained as a metal worker and upholsterer at the Copenhagen School for Arts and Crafts. He led a successful design business until his death in 1994 working with such designers as Poul Kjaerholm and Bodil Kjaer

Height: 18"

Seat height:

Width: 24"

Depth: 24"

Diameter:

Drop: