

5179

Bertha Schaefer for M. Singer & Sons 1950s Walnut Nesting Tables

1950s

this cleverly designed mid-century set of nesting tables designed by Bertha Schaefer (American 1895-1971) for M. Singer & Sons with rectangular case table fitted on the underside with 4 round drop-leaf slide-in collapsible tables suspended from slots; with label 'M. Singer & Sons, New York Chicago'; In 1924 Schaefer founded Bertha Schaefer Interiors. Her company designed Bauhaus-inspired furniture and interiors for both residences and businesses. In 1952 Schaefer's work was included in New York's MOMA exhibition Good Design where these nesting tables were exhibited; good vintage condition; professionally refinished case table: 24.25" h, 24 w, 17.5" d folding tables: 23" h, 16.5 diam Height: 24.25"

Seat height:

Width: 24"

Depth: 17.5"

Diameter:

Drop: