

60692

18th Century Austrian Neoclassical Gilt-bronze and Crystal Six-arm Hexagonal Chandelier

circa 1790

this elegant period candle and electric chandelier from Austria's Leopold II reign, the graduated gilt-bronze hexagonal frame with neoclassical relief and filigree decoration adorned with crystal pendants and beads; emanating six candle arms and now modified with six electric sockets within the body of the fixture; good antique condition; professionally restored with some replaced crystals; even wear and patina

Height:

Seat height:

Width:

Depth:

Diameter: 37"

Drop: 40"