Larry Witt Vase

dated 1995

Gorgeous bowl by master wood turning artist, Larry Witt. Witt is a Southwest artist, who is displayed in many galleries, and is collected all around the world. Witt composes his pieces using many different species of wood. Using no dyes or stains, it is the variety of natural colorations in his wood choices that define his work. This bowl is made of oak, maple and purpleheart woods, and is comprised of 161 separate pieces of wood. It has a wonderful, sweet smell. Amazing piece of art! It is a large bowl / vessel, measuring 13.5 inches wide by 5.75 inches tall. It is signed on the bottom: "Witt 95 204", and documents the woods and number of pieces: "oak maple purple heart 161 pcs." It is in excellent condition. Beautiful artisan bowl
