Antique French Empire Style Crystal and Gilt-bronze Hexagonal 3-light Chandelier

1920's

the elegant fixture is reminiscent of the grandeur and elegance of the French Empire style with a hexagonal, tiered gilt-bronze frame hanging from a central support adorned overall with crystal drops ending in a large, faceted crystal ball suspended from the center; the top tier with neoclassical detailing of overlapping laurel leaves and berries; fitted with a 3-light cluster for chandelier base bulbs (maximum 60 watts per socket); good antique condition with even patina; professionally rewired.
