a sumptuous and curvaceous pair of 'Kimono' chairs designed by Eggarat Wongcharit, Bangkok 1990's

After studying design in New York and Milan, Eggarat Wongcharit returned to his native Thailand and embarked on creating furniture designs of his own. Taking his inspiration from the fluidity of nature, Wongcharit combines Southeast Asian craftsmanship with modern design and technology, creating uniquely styled pieces for the global market. His designs have been awarded the 2006 TIFF (Thailand International Furniture Fair) and the Silpathorn Award for Design from Thailand's Ministry of Culture. His designs have been exhibited internationally at the Superstudiopiu, Milan; excellent condition; new leather upholstery
