

20th century & antique furnishings

4691

a rare and large-scaled italian attic red terra cotta glazed stamnos vase/jar by listed ceramicist Giovanni Mollica, c. 1850

circa 1850

signed on bottom 'Giovanni Mollica'; in 1842, Giovanni founded his ceramic workshop in Naples, Italy. His sons Ciro, Achille and Alexander took over the family business, continuing it until the end of the 19th century; excellent condition with only minor overall wear to surface; a truly spectacular piece Height: 17 1/2"

Seat height: Width: 18" Depth: 15" Diameter: Drop: $5,650