

60489

an unusually large english late George III Mahogany single-drawer Canterbury late 18th century

one of the largest and best quality Canterbury's made, fitted with three adjustable serpentine dividers on a rectangular base with applied moldings and lion ring handles; the columnar rounded corners continuing to tapering legs on brass casters; excellent antique condition; attributed to Gillows of Lancaster and London (1730-1840)

Height: 25"

Seat height:

Width: 22"

Depth: 19 1/4"

Diameter:

Drop:

$4,250