

5039

Watercolor on paper: Paul Immel (1896-1964) White Flowers in a Blue Bowl

1950s

Signed lower left; Paul Immel was born in Helena, Montana in 1864. Immel studied at the Ball School of Art in Minneapolis and in 1924 moved to Los Angeles where he further studied at Otis Art Institute, later moving to Seattle, Washington. Immel is known for his watercolor floral studies and was a member of the Puget Sound Group of Northwest Painters and the Northwest Watercolor Society; excellent condition with nice clear colors; some wear to blonde-stained wooden frame

Height: 25.75"

Seat height:

Width: 35"

Depth: 1.75"

Diameter:

Drop:

$3,250