

5362

A Striking Set of Four Portuguese Imari Style Vases Now Mounted as Lamps

1980s

from the Vista Alegre Porcelain Factory (founded 1824) each rectilinear vase with flared neck above a tapering body ending in a splayed foot; hand decorated overall with vibrant floral and foliate vines; maker's mark to underside; now drilled and mounted as lamps; with custom giltwood caps and bases; professionally rewired; only minor wear from use

Height: 16.25 (top of porcelain) 27.25" (top of shade)

Seat height:

Width: 8"

Depth: 5.5"

Diameter:

Drop:

$10,800