

60559

A Fine English George III Mahogany Cabinet/Linen Press

circa 1800

Of fine quality, the tall and impressive cabinet in the neoclassical taste with canted corners all capped by a pierced gallery above a case fitted with two hinged doors of book-matched mahogany veneer centering inlaid shell medallions below drapery festoons within well-carved framed reserves; the lower section fitted with three long drawers with inlaid stringing and half-round shell motifs; all flanked by fluted pilasters; the side panels with similar inlay; the whole raised on splayed bracket feet; good antique condition with professional restorations; refinished surface; portions of the gallery re-glued

Height: 89.25"

Seat height:

Width: 60

Depth: 23

Diameter:

Drop:

$15,400