

60681

KPM Berlin Blanc de Chine Five-light Rococo Style Candelabra

late 1950s

a large and well-executed pair of rococo style 4-arm candelabra with trefoil-shaped baluster stem supporting a single candle cup; all resting on a six-footed splayed base; the four double-modeled candle arms supporting tulip-shaped cups on circular bobeches; adorned overall with meandering floral vines, foliate scrolls and rocaille motifs; with underglaze blue maker's mark; excellent vintage condition with no apparent chips or cracks Originally designed by Friedrich Elias Meyer at the Meissen Porcelain Manufactory in 1775. The design was re-introduced by KPM porcelain modeller Jacoba Gijsberta Monica van Eck in the late 1950s. Each candelabra with the distinct KPM Berlin royal scepter maker's mark with manufacturing dates of 1945-1962.

Height: 24"

Seat height:

Width:

Depth:

Diameter: 14.25"

Drop:

$5,800