

5588

Ingrid Atterberg for Upsala Ekeby Pair of Ceramic 1940s Lamps Signed produced 1949

each large glazed ceramic baluster-form table lamp on later lucite bases designed by Swedish artist Ingrid Atterberg as part of the "Spiral" series, circa 1949, with alternating ochre and white stripes on a matte brown ground; impressed marks to underside; Ingrid Atterberg (1920-2008) was born in the northern Sweden city of Harnosand. She studied at Sloydforeningens School in Gothenburg. Ingrid came to the Upsala-Ekeby Pottery factory in 1944, staying on until 1964. She became one of the foremost Swedish designers of the period; good vintage condition with only minor rubbing; professionally rewired with later lucite bases

Height: 22.75" (top of ceramic) 35.75" (top of shade)

Seat height:

Width:

Depth:

Diameter: 6.5"

Drop:

$7,650