

20th century & antique furnishings

5589 Karl Ens Fine Porcelain Polychrome Exotic Bird Sculpture of a Toucan $\underline{1919-1945}$

the intricately detailed toucan with its dramatic curved beak above a finely plumed body resting on a foliate branch; all in a colorful hand-painted and glazed finish; marked on underside with an underglaze green windmill indicating production dates 1919 - 1945; Karl Ens (the elder) began Triebner, Ens & Co. in 1860. In 1899, his son, also named Karl, founded his own company, Porzellanfabrik Karl Ens, in Volkstedt, Thuringia and quickly became known for producing high-quality porcelain, especially life-like animal figurines; good condition with no chips or cracks; only minimal wear

Height: 12.5" Seat height: Width: 11.5" Depth: 6.5" Diameter: Drop: $2,200