

20th century & antique furnishings

5609

Larry Witt Hand-turned Vase of Bloodwood, Maple and Walnut; Signed dated 1995

beautifully crafted vase by master wood turning artist, Larry Witt. Witt is a Southwest artist whose works appear in many galleries, and is collected worldwide. He composes his pieces using many different species of wood. Using no dyes or stains, Witt's pieces are defined by their natural coloration. Signed "Witt 95-186" as well as markings for the types of wood used (Bloodwood, Maple and Walnut); an exceptional artisan bowl; in good vintage condition with no missing elements;

Height: 8.25"

Seat height: Width:

Depth:

Diameter: 8.5"

Drop: $2,250